Our Patron Saint

The most celebrated of all the Roman martyrs, Laurence was one of the seven deacons of Rome. According to tradition, the Prefect of Rome demanded that Laurence hand over the Church's treasure. Laurence gathered together the city's poor and suffering and presented them to the official with the words, "Here is the Church's treasure."

The legend that Laurence was martyred on a grid iron was once widely believed and this emblem is the basis of our school logo.

St Laurence Primary School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and expects all members of our school community to share this commitment
